

Courtesy Adams Bungalow Company

The towing burden on the car is not so great as it appears. It must be remembered that the trailer load is being pulled, not carried. The difference is basic

Camping with a Trailer

THE most complete and luxurious type of motor camping equipment is the camping trailer. This versatile unpowered vehicle, towed behind the car, is much comfort with a trailer as in a small summer cottage; in some respects more so, for you have a moving camp with the advantages of a fixed camp. The vacationist is a wide range of variety and almost as wide a range of price.

The development of the trailer and its use has been greatest in the Middle West and in the Mountain

At the right is the Marx Trailer outfit set up apart from car. At the left is a commercial trailer doing camping service as a carry-all both a carry-all and a portable summer home in which one can set up light housekeeping by the wayside whenever or wherever one's fancy dictates.

You can camp with about as bound by no summer-long lease. If he doesn't like one place he can always move on to the next.

The illustrations on this page show various types of trailer set up, or in use on the road. There is

States. The improvement of roads in those sections has called large numbers of people to the gasoline trail. They are seeing America first, last, and all the time and carrying their hotels with them.

Courtesy Auto-Kamp Equipment Company

This type of trailers is provided with a special boat sling so that one can carry along a canoe, sectional rowboat or some other kind of small craft